

A LITANY FOR CWS KITS SUNDAY

Leader: As the flood waters covered the face of the earth,

People: A dove with an olive branch proclaimed the promise of hope.

Leader: As an army of terror reigned down upon God's people,

People: The parting of the sea proclaimed the promise of hope.

Leader: As a man born blind cried out for eyes to see,

People: Mud from the earth proclaimed the promise of hope.

Leader: As a cross of injustice cast a shadow upon the land,

People: An empty tomb proclaimed the promise of hope.

All: May hope inspire us.

May hope transform us.

May hope embolden us,

That we, in turn, may we be providers of hope for others.
